What does your character need?
How will God meet that need?

What does your character long for?
How will God meet that longing?

Capture the Heart

Write a scene where your character learns that God can meet their need or longing. It doesn't have to be perfect, you don't have to use it later. Simply practice capturing the character's heart with who God is and what He does.

Redemptive Turning Point

I wonder, what will the redemptive turning point of your character be like?

What truth will hit home? How will he/she act upon it?
